

Lyrics

Love Makes the World Go 'Round

Come sing with us!

I love myself the way I am
Try to be the best I can
One of a kind, I'm a work of art
Move to the beat of my own heart
Love myself the way I am
Thank you for being a friend
You and me, it's a beautiful sound
Love makes the world go 'round

Some days I wake up on the wrong side of bed
My hair is messy and it messes with my head
I've got big feelings, my heart is all tight
An attitude of gratitude makes me feel all right

I'm strong, even if I'm not the biggest I try to lift you up, metaphorically speaking
I'm a good friend and I want to connect
When I look into the mirror I see self-respect, because

I love myself the way I am
Try to be the best I can
One of a kind, I'm a work of art
Move to the beat of my own heart
Love myself the way I am
Thank you for being a friend
You and me, it's a beautiful sound
Love makes the world go 'round

When the voice in my mind puts me down
I take a deep breath and turn the love around
I need to love myself when I'm feeling low It's okay to make mistakes, that's a part of how we grow

I'm getting bigger and faster and stronger
The longer I live on this earth I grow fonder of me
I'm a friend to myself, number one
So I can be a better friend to you!
Let's have fun!

Love myself the way I am
Try to be the best I can
One of a kind, I'm a work of art
Move to the beat of my own heart
Love myself the way I am
Thank you for being a friend
You and me, it's a beautiful sound
Love makes the world go 'round

Love makes the world go
Love makes the world go 'round
Love makes the world go
Love makes the world go 'round

Love makes the world go
Love makes the world go 'round
Love makes the world go
Love makes the world go 'round
